

Data Received

The Department of Education has a record of having received ALCAP language census reports from the school districts and charter schools listed. The average daily membership (ADM) and LEP information presented below is a compilation drawn from data submitted to the Department of Education's School Finance unit by school districts and public charter schools. [Note: the dates below indicate the LAST file activity, which may have been corrections, additional input, or ADE file maintenance activity. All submittal dates showing January, and some showing late December, are of this type.]
